BEST CUSTOM INTERIOR

Incorporating excellent design and siting on the lot, superb craftsmanship and attention to detail, and a truly stunning interior, this house best embodies all of the finest elements of custom home design and construction. The architectural design by Hammond Wilson Architects of Annapolis, Maryland, features dominant rooflines and a stone and stucco veneer that blend perfectly with the multi-colored Vermont roof slate. Kristin Peake effected a stunning interior design incorporating Mexican limestone, a natural cherry wood and painted baluster grand staircase, and a kitchen that combines tumbled marble backslashes with cement countertops to provide an old-world meets new-world approach. The upstairs Master Suite is truly breathtaking with glazed walls in a pearlescent shimmer, silk draperies, dark mahogany, and a master bath as luxurious as a day spa. The lower level includes a large grotto wine cellar.
